CPA

BE A FUTURE-READY CPA

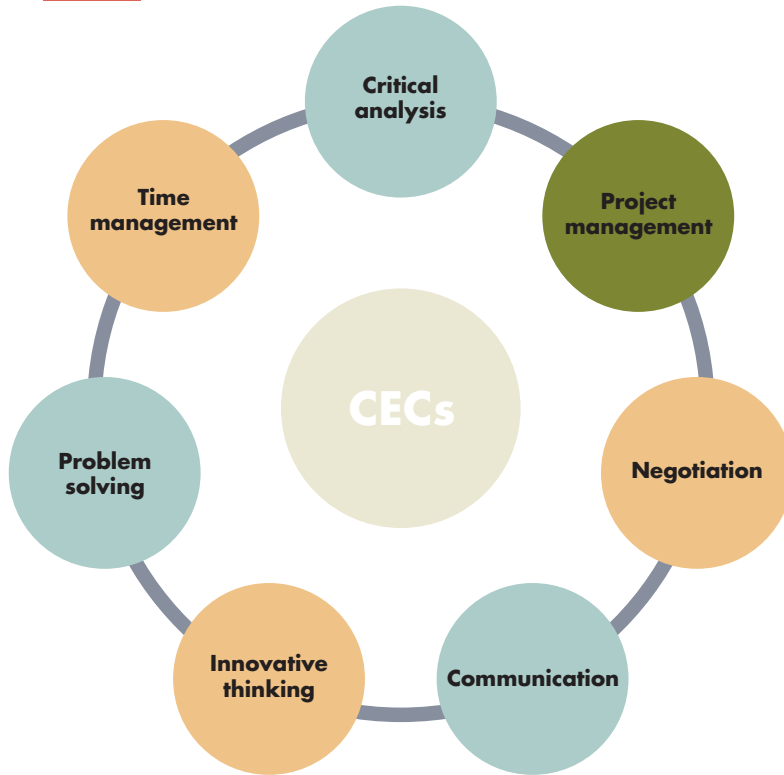

CPAs are moving into a wider range of businesses beyond the traditional roles of accounting functions. The role of accountants is transforming with the fast changing world. A new mix of technical and soft skills, such as business acumen, data analytics and leaderships, are required for accountants to stay relevant in an ever-changing business world.

Qualified CPAs uphold ethical values and demonstrate excellence and competence at technical accounting knowledge and skills in their roles. Alongside these necessary attributes, a future-ready CPA should possess leadership skills, analytical skills, and problem-solving skills.

The Capstone challenges students to move from the traditional accounting roles to more versatile roles in the business world. Completing the Capstone demonstrates that the students have reached an important milestone for a successful and fulfilling career.

QP's CORE ENABLING COMPETENCES

The new Qualification Programme introduced the core enabling competences (CECs) to help students to develop their ability to apply their professional knowledge in professional contexts, with added emphasis on ethical training, to meet the needs in today's complex business environment.

PROGRESSING IN THE NEW QP

ASSOCIATE LEVEL

Build up the core technical knowledge and application skills for routine professional problems in the areas of accountancy, finance, management accounting, law and auditing.

PROFESSIONAL LEVEL

Develop the technical knowledge in core areas needed as a professional accountant and be able to apply the knowledge in realistic professional settings, evaluate complex issues, and offer sound advice to resolve problems.

CAPSTONE

Demonstrate high-order skills with the ability to integrate and apply prior knowledge acquired to deal with professional types situations across all fields in accounting, business and finance.

THE AIM OF THE CAPSTONE

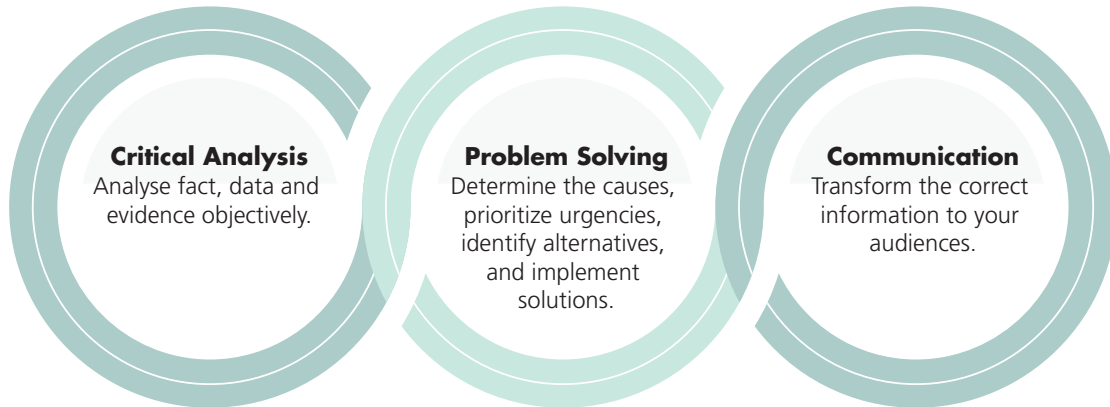

The rapid evolution on business environment including technological advancement, the proliferation of innovative business models, changing societal reputations etc., have had a significant impact on the role of professional accountants in society, who are no longer left only to deal with numbers, but also to analyse and advise.

The Capstone is designed to develop the high-order skills to prepare students to deal with complex problems and develop multifaceted solutions which are vital to succeed in a career as a professional accountant.

THE FOCUS OF THE CAPSTONE

Success in the Capstone demonstrates a higher-level of performance and the professional skills in analysis and critical thinking, problem-solving, effective communication and leadership. These skills are essential for CPAs to evaluate and make informed judgements on a wide variety of complex and often unpredictable issues, and be able to communicate professional solutions using appropriate methods.

THE JOURNEY

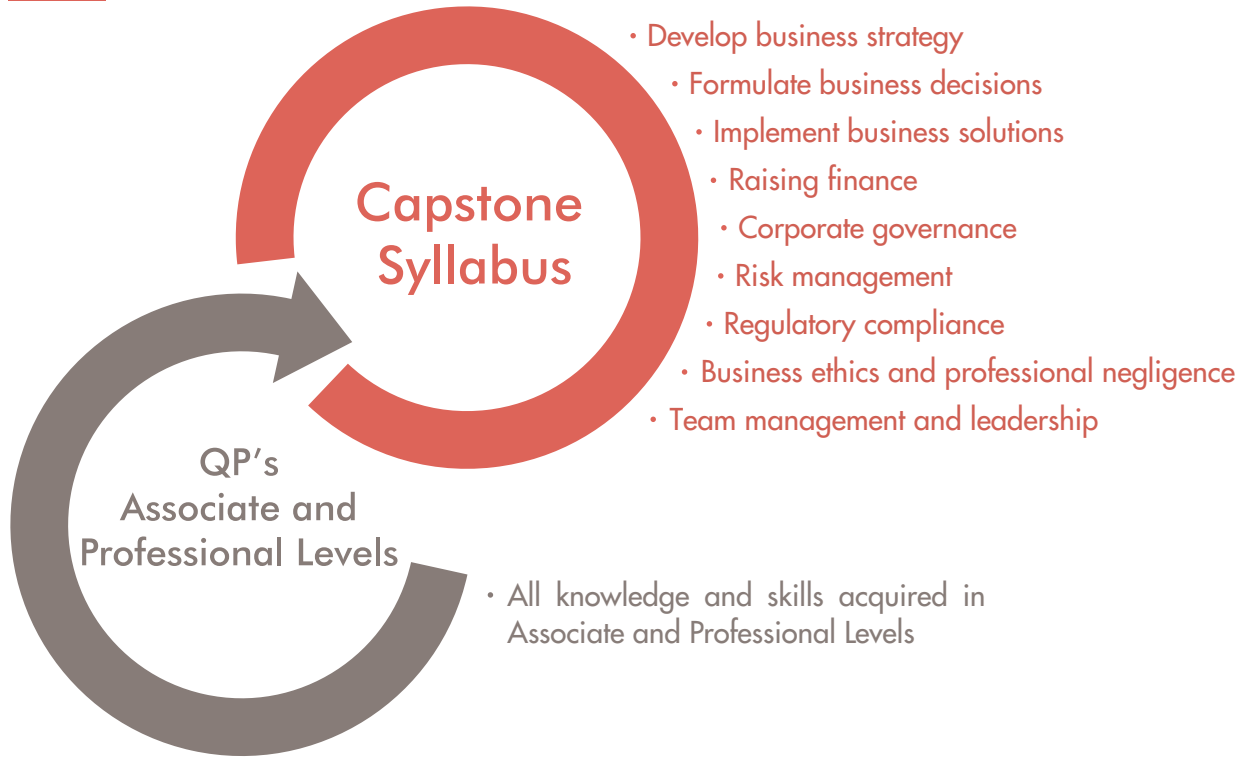

The Capstone is integrated and comprised of three full-day workshops and the Final Examination. It focuses on the development of the ability to deal competently with professional types situations by simulating the business world.

The three-day workshops are designed to be dynamic and interactive, and inspire learning through various activities, e.g. pre-work, group discussions, presentation, simulations, case studies, assessments tasks, etc.

Completion of the Capstone requires meeting the overall assessment criteria through various assessment activities across the three full-day workshops and the Final Examination.

CAPSTONE COVERAGE

THE THREE-DAY WORKSHOPS

The three full-day workshops are case-based including simulations, case studies and assessment tasks. Activities in the workshops are built on the same mega-case and they are interrelated. Students are required to demonstrate their achievement of the prescribed learning outcomes and meet the assessment criteria of the workshops.
