EXPLANATORY NOTES FOR AUTHORISING THE COMMISSIONER OF POLICE
TO RELEASE FULL PARTICULARS OF ANY AND ALL CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS

(Only ORIGINAL Authorisation Form will be accepted.)

1. In determining whether a membership applicant is a fit and proper person to become a certified public accountant, the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (HKICPA) takes all relevant factors into consideration. The fit and proper criteria for membership is set out in <https://www.hkicpa.org.hk/en/Membership/Registration/Members-and-Affiliates/Register-as-a-CPA/fit-person>. Criminal conviction is an important criteria that HKICPA takes into account when assessing whether the applicant is fit and proper.
2. All membership applicants are required to sign on the Authorisation Form (Annex 1) and give their consent to the Hong Kong Police to release full particulars of any and all criminal convictions to HKICPA.
3. All membership applicants are required to complete and return the duly signed Authorisation Form along with his/her completed HKICPA membership application Form R-3 to HKICPA for processing.
4. The Authorisation Form is part of the HKICPA membership application Form R-3. Submission of a Form R-3 without a completed and signed Authorisation Form is an incomplete application and will not be further processed.

NOTES

Please read these notes carefully before completing FORM R-3
(The Institute reserves the right to change, modify, add or remove any part of this application form without prior notice. Please check the Institute's website from time to time for the latest version.)

Note 1 – Requirements for registration as a Certified Public Accountant ("CPA")

As required under sections 24(1) and (1A) of the Professional Accountants Ordinance ("PAO"), to apply for membership of the Hong Kong Institute of CPAs ("the Institute"), an applicant should:

- (a) have attained the age of 21;
- (b) be of good character and be a fit and proper person to be a certified public accountant;
- (c) either: (i) have completed the Institute's Qualification Programme ("QP") or the former HKSA/ACCA Joint Examination Scheme; OR (ii) have acquired full membership of an overseas accountancy body by sitting and passing its professional examinations; and met all conditions specified in one of the following agreements that is currently in force between the Institute and the respective overseas body:
 - Reciprocal Membership Agreement ("RMA")
 - Mutual Recognition Agreement ("MRA")
 - Agreement for Mutual Examination Paper Exemption ("MEPE"); and
- (d) have acquired relevant practical experience in accordance with the Institute's practical experience requirements for membership.

For details, please refer to the booklet "Guide to Membership of the Institute" which from our website at: https://www.hkicpa.org.hk/-/media/HKICPA-Website/HKICPA/section3_registration/Register-as-a-CPA/pdf-file/form/guide-to-membership.pdf and the "Recognition of overseas bodies" section in our website at: <https://www.hkicpa.org.hk/en/Membership/Registration/Recognition-of-overseas-bodies/>.

Note 2 – Name

- 2.1 Applicant's name to be registered with the Institute must be the same as that appearing in the applicant's identity document such as Hong Kong identity card / passport.
- 2.2 Upon approval of this application, applicant's name will appear in the online membership list at <https://www.hkicpa.org.hk/en/Membership/Find-a-CPA/Membership-List> and the register of CPAs which is required under section 22(2) of the PAO.

Note 3 – Contact details

- 3.1 Applicant is required to provide his/her residential address and any business address for the Registrar to enter in the register of certified public accountants to comply with section 22(2) of the PAO. Under section 22 of the PAO, the Institute shall keep a register of certified public accountants for public inspection at its office without charge. As such, upon approval of this application, the applicant's name, membership number, part of his/her address(es), and the qualification by virtue of which he/she is registered will be entered into the said register as required by the PAO.
- 3.2 The Institute corresponds with members in electronic format via email. However, in addition to an email address, members are still required to provide a correspondence address that is easily/ regularly accessible by him/ her to which all hardcopy communications and statutory notices from the Institute, such as the annual renewal package, documents in relation to Council election, etc., may be addressed. Applicant may choose one of the addresses given as the correspondence address.
- 3.3 Applicant who is working or residing in Mainland China may consider providing address in Chinese to avoid delay in receiving mails from the Institute.

Note 4 – Professional attainments

- 4.1 Applicants are required to sit and pass either the professional examinations run by the Institute or the professional examinations of an accountancy body accepted by the Institute. Applicants applying by virtue of their membership with an accepted accountancy body may also be required to complete/pass QP workshop(s)/module examinations and/or satisfy the Institute's Aptitude Test ("AT") requirement as specified in the respective recognition agreement.
- 4.2 The list of accountancy bodies currently accepted by the Institute's Council for partial or full exemption from the Institute's professional examinations and/or AT requirement is detailed in the Institute's website: https://www.hkicpa.org.hk/-/media/HKICPA-Website/HKICPA/section3_registration/Register-as-a-CPA/pdf-file/form/guide-to-membership.pdf.
- 4.3 The Institute's AT comprises two papers, namely Hong Kong Law and Hong Kong Taxation. There are other options to satisfy the AT requirement. For details on exemption from the AT or options to satisfy the AT requirement, please refer to our website: <https://www.hkicpa.org.hk/en/Membership/Registration/Members-and-Affiliates/Register-as-a-CPA/Aptitude-Test>.

Note 5 – Length of practical experience required for holders of different academic qualifications

- 3 years for approved degree holders or graduates of the Associate Level of the Institute's Qualification Programme ("QP")
- 4 years for approved accountancy diploma holders
- 5 years for holders of other academic qualifications

Note 6 – Practical experience

- 6.1 Under Professional Accountants By-law 41(3), "practical experience" (實際經驗) means experience whether in Hong Kong or elsewhere acceptable to the Council as an employee of a person practising public accountancy or in the financial or management accountancy department of an organisation in industry, commerce or the public service or in a similar department. Please refer to the Institute's website at: <https://www.hkicpa.org.hk/en/Become-a-Hong-Kong-CPA/New-QP/Revised-Practical-Experience-Framework/Overview-for-QP-students> for details.
- 6.2 Within the required length of practical experience for membership (see Note 5 above), an applicant can have up to three employments and one of the employments can be less than 12 months. The rest of the experience must be acquired from employment(s) that lasts for at least 12 months with the same employer. Depending on the academic qualifications of the applicant, the respective requirements are:

	Minimum length of full-time practical experience for membership	Minimum Working Days during the Practical Experience Period
Approved degree holders or QP students graduated from the Associate Level of the QP	3 years	500 Working Days
Approved accountancy diploma holders	4 years	670 Working Days
Holders of other academic qualifications	5 years	830 Working Days

- 6.3 Practical experience should be substantiated with relevant Institute's training records.
- 6.4 Practical experience gained by QP students and by applicants from other recognised bodies, if applicable, on or after 1 January 2023 must be under the Institute's Authorized Employer ("AE") or Authorized Supervisor ("AS") complying with the revised Practical Experience Framework ("PEF") requirements. For such experience, a complete set of the Institute's Training Records Summary of Practical Experience for Membership Admission ("Training Records Summary Report") must be submitted together with this application form.

For practical experience under the old Practical Experience Framework gained by QP students and by applicants from other recognised bodies, if applicable, prior to 1 January 2023, a complete set of Prospective Member's Record of Practical Experience that has/ have been duly certified by AE(s) or AS(s) and a set of completed Conversion Report can be submitted together with this application. Please refer to the Institute's website at: <https://www.hkicpa.org.hk/en/Become-a-Hong-Kong-CPA/New-QP/Revised-Practical-Experience-Framework/Transitional-arrangements-of-revised-Practical-Experience-Framework> for details.

Please refer to the "Checklist for Membership Applicants" at the end of this form for the supporting documents that are required for such purpose.

- 6.5 For the policy on recognition of practical experience acquired outside Hong Kong or applicants from other recognised bodies, please refer to the Institute's website at: <https://www.hkicpa.org.hk/en/Become-a-Hong-Kong-CPA/New-QP/Revised-Practical-Experience-Framework/Overview-for-QP-students> for details.

Note 7 – Fit and proper

- 7.1 Any person seeking the Institute's membership must satisfy the Institute that he/she is a fit and proper person to be a certified public accountant.
- 7.2 The Institute's criteria for considering whether a membership applicant is fit and proper to be a certified public accountant are as follows:
- (a) Fitness – Fitness relates to the competence and capacity of the applicant to apply the Institute's professional standards or otherwise discharge the responsibilities of a certified public accountant.
Criteria to consider include but are not limited to professional qualifications, knowledge, skills, experience and reliability.
- (b) Propriety – Propriety relates to the applicant's character and suitability for membership.
Criteria to consider include but are not limited to:
- Adherence to the Institute's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants, based on the fundamental principles of integrity, objectivity, professional competence and due care, confidentiality and professional behaviour
 - Adherence to professional standards
 - Financial integrity
 - Conviction or civil liability
 - Good reputation and character
- 7.3 A "yes" answer to any of the questions of this part of the application form will not automatically result in an applicant being refused membership. The Institute may, however, wish to make further enquiries before reaching a decision.
- 7.4 If the Institute finds out about any matters which an applicant did not disclose this will be viewed very seriously. It could jeopardise the applicant's membership application or continuing registration as a CPA.
- 7.5 The Institute reserves the right to verify where necessary the information furnished by the applicant with the Commissioner of Police and any criminal investigatory bodies or regulatory authorities in or outside Hong Kong or their representatives and any third parties concerned.

Note 8 – Application from former members

- 8.1 Former members are required to re-apply for membership by submitting a fresh membership application which will be assessed in accordance with the rules and requirements prevailing. The date of approval of this application will be recorded as the new registration date.

- 8.2 With effect from the membership renewal for 2005, members of the Institute are required to comply with the prevailing Continuing Professional Development ("CPD") requirements prescribed by the Council and submit a signed CPD declaration for membership renewal. Former members of the Institute who were removed for non-compliance with the CPD requirements must submit a letter together with this membership application declaring that they have fulfilled the CPD requirements as stipulated in Statement 1.500 for the year in which their membership was removed. As an alternative, applicant may email member@hkcipa.org.hk to obtain a standard form for completion and return along with his/ her membership re-application.

For details of the CPD requirements, please refer to Statement 1.500 in our website at: https://www.hkcipa.org.hk/-/media/HKICPA-Website/Members-Handbook/volumel/1_500.pdf.

- 8.3 Former members re-applying for membership will not be required to submit documents which are already in the Institute's records. However, applicants are required to observe the latest membership admission requirements and provide additional supporting document(s), where applicable, to complete the current application procedures.
- 8.4 To ensure the membership re-applicants have undertaken relevant and recent learning activities to maintain their professional competence for their role as a CPA, former members of the Institute are required to complete at least 20 hours of relevant and verifiable CPD activities in the last one year at the time of re-application as stipulated in Statement 1.500.

Note 9 – Application from an International Affiliate ("IA")

- 9.1 Former/ Current IAs applying for membership will not be required to submit documents which are already in the Institute's records. However, applicants are required to observe the latest membership admission requirements and provide additional supporting document(s), where applicable, to complete the current application procedures.
- 9.2 Upon approval of this application, the name of the successful applicant will automatically be removed from the list of IAs.

Note 10 – Communications via email

- 10.1 The Institute communicates by email ("e-communication"). For those who want to receive our correspondence in hardcopy format by post, in addition to the application and annual fees that are required for his/her membership application, he/she is required to pay a surcharge for this purpose. Please refer to the Fee Schedule announced by the Institute from time to time. No refund will be made if he/she switches to e-communication during the year.
- 10.2 For technical enquiries, please contact the Institute's IT support team on: (852) 2287-7800 or via email at: itenquiry@hkcipa.org.hk.

Note 11 – Mail service

For applicants residing outside Hong Kong, excluding Macau, who have chosen to receive correspondence from the Institute by post, they may, upon admission, opt to receive their mails from the Institute by airmail. Otherwise, the correspondence will be sent to them by surface mail. No additional charge will be levied for receiving mails by air.

Note 12 – Communication of the Institute services

The Institute intends to use the personal data of your name, email address and correspondence address to inform you, where relevant, of CPD activities, members' benefits, goods, services, facilities and events organized or provided by the Institute or other organizations. Upon approval of your application, you may opt out from receiving such materials at any time by login the following link, <https://mas.hkcipa.org.hk/mycpa/communication/preference>

Note 13 – Conviction in Hong Kong or elsewhere

A certified public accountant who is convicted either in Hong Kong or in another jurisdiction of any criminal offence or is found guilty of any professional misconduct by a local or an overseas professional or regulatory body should notify the Institute of the conviction or finding as soon as practicable.

Note 14 – Processing of application

- 14.1 The Registration Committee will examine an application made on this Form and submit its recommendations to the Council for approval.
- 14.2 The result of an application will normally be available 10 weeks after the relevant submission deadline. Please refer to the Submission Deadline announced by the Institute from time to time.
- 14.3 Failure to provide full information and evidence may cause delay in the processing of an application.
- 14.4 Any false information/ declaration provided in this application form may result in application not being processed. The matter may also be referred to the relevant committee(s) or Council for disciplinary action as the Institute sees fit under section 34 of the PAO. Please review your application carefully before submission of your application to the Institute.
- 14.5 The Institute reserves the right to verify where necessary the information furnished by the applicant with the employer(s) / parent institute(s) / the Commissioner of Police and any criminal investigatory bodies or regulatory authorities in or outside Hong Kong or their representatives and any third parties concerned.
- 14.6 The Commissioner of Police will carry out a criminal convictions record check based on the personal particulars provided in the Authorization Form. The Hong Kong Police Force may require you to provide additional information in accordance with such requirements as it may have in place from time to time. Non-compliance with the requirements of the Hong Kong Police Force may render the criminal convictions record check incomplete and might result in the Institute deciding to discontinue this membership application.
- 14.7 The Institute has entered into a number of reciprocal or mutual recognition agreements with overseas accountancy bodies, under which the Institute and the other body are obligated to exchange information on a person with dual membership in both bodies in relation to an investigation or disciplinary proceedings concerning him/her, if such an investigation or proceedings arise.

Note 15 – Supporting documents

- 15.1 All applicants are required to complete and return his/ her duly signed "Annex 1 – Authorization for verifying criminal convictions" along with this application form for the Institute's processing.
- 15.2 Supporting documents required depend on whether you apply as a QP graduate or former HKSA/ACCA Joint Examination Scheme, or as a member of an overseas accountancy body with which the Institute has a recognition agreement in force. Please refer to the "Checklist for Membership Applicants" at the end of this form for details.
- 15.3 Unless otherwise specified, all documents submitted, if they are photocopies, must be certified by any of the following persons:
- A certified public accountant, i.e. HKICPA member. Full name in BLOCK letters with HKICPA membership no. should be provided on each of the document he/ she has certified for verification purpose.
 - A legal practitioner. Full name with contact details should be provided for future communication.
 - Government District Officer (through statutory declaration)
 - Authorised staff of the Institute (only if originals are presented with photocopies for certification)

Note 16 – Fees

- 16.1 An application must be accompanied by the appropriate application and annual fees. Please refer to the Fee Schedule announced by the Institute from time to time.
- 16.2 Applications approved by Council during the year will take effect immediately, except those approved in November or December which will take effect on 1 January of the next calendar year. Applicants whose application will be considered by Council in November or December but wish to have their applications take effect from the current calendar year are required to indicate their option in Section 6(H) of this Form and pay the half-year member annual fee for the current year and full-year fee for the next year accordingly.
- 16.3 For applicants who are graduates of the Institute's professional examinations, the student annual fee paid for a calendar year may be refunded in full upon their admission as a CPA provided that their membership application is received and approved unconditionally before 30 June in the same year.
- 16.4 For applicants who are International Affiliates of the Institute, the IA annual fee paid for a calendar year may be refunded in full upon their admission as a CPA, provided that their membership application is received and approved unconditionally by 30 June in the same year.
- 16.5 A $500 administration charge will be deducted from the refund in case an application is rejected by the Institute or is withdrawn by the applicant.
- 16.6 An administrative charge of $1,000 will be applicable to former members reapplying for membership for the second or more time.

Note 17 – Annual renewal requirements

- 17.1 As stipulated under section 28 of the PAO, irrespective of the admission date, membership registration of an individual member shall remain in force until 31 December in the year in which he/she was so registered, and be renewable annually.
- 17.2 Under the current legislation, members of the Institute are required to pay the relevant annual fee and comply with the Institute's CPD requirements before they are eligible to renew their membership registration with the Institute.

Note 18 – Change of particulars

Any change in contact details or employment after the submission of the application should be notified to the Institute as soon as applicable. Upon registration as a CPA, you may update your contact details in "Profile" under MyCPA of the Institute's website at www.hkicpa.org.hk or complete and return the Membership Record Amendment Coupon which is downloadable at: www.hkicpa.org.hk/mrac to the Membership & Admission Department within one month of the change. Notification sent via email is not acceptable for the purpose.

Note 19 – Enquires

For enquiries in relation to the application, please contact the Membership & Admission Department of the Institute via email at: member@hkicpa.org.hk; telephone: (852) 2287-7228.
