FSIG Lunch Seminar –

Developments in the PRC Financial Services Sector

ABOUT THE SEMINAR

The seminar will generally cover various legal developments in the financial services sector in the PRC. The seminar will focus specifically on the expansion of foreign participation in the areas of securities, banking, and insurance. It will provide a general legal framework, background and recent developments in these areas.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Mr. Kit Kwok 's work focuses on assisting multinational clients in various aspects of direct investment, mergers and acquisitions and financing in the PRC. His experience include assisting in the drafting of joint venture documents, loan contracts, security documents, documentation for acquisition and restructuring of direct investment vehicles, as well as undertaking due diligence on large scale acquisitions. He has also worked extensively on advising various clients on the opportunities and regulatory environment in the PRC financial services sector. He has acted for various banks and fund management companies in the establishment of fund management companies in the PRC and investment in securities companies. Mr. Kwok is a member of the firm's China Practice Group.
