

PAIB Forum – Future CFO's DNA

About the forum

Professional accountants are no longer merely number crunchers in today's ever-changing business world. There are plenty of matters they have to cope with in their daily work, such as maintaining harmony at workplace.

At this coming event tailored for members in business, we bring you an impressive panel of renowned CFOs who will share their insights and useful tips about handling challenges facing PAIBs and key attributes of being future CFOs. During the breakout session, participants will have the opportunity to share directly with their peers, in smaller groups, about practical issues they come across at their workplace.

Members are encouraged to send their views on the subject in advance via the event's Facebook, which will contribute to a more meaningful discussion at the forum.
