

Members' Forum for PAIBs

About the forum

The Institute organizes members' forum to apprise PAIB members of the developments of topical issues, both international and local, and services and activities provided by the Institute and its PAIB Committee. Members' views will also be sought regarding the challenges faced by PAIBs and how the Institute could better serve them at the group discussions.

At this forum, participants can directly give their views on the services currently or expected to be provided by the Institute, including:

- Members' engagement and support services and activities
- Financial Controllership Programme
- Services to PAIBs, including specialist interest groups
