Highlights Hong Kong Standards on Auditing and the Institute's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants have for a number of years been converged with the International Standards on Auditing and the IESBA Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants, both issued by the International Federation of Accountants (IFAC).

The IFAC's independent standard setting boards are currently consulting publicly on their strategies and work plans for the forthcoming few years. The Institute has issued corresponding invitations to comment and these can be accessed on the Institute's website.

The Institute is delighted to welcome Mr. James Sylph to Hong Kong. Mr. Sylph will provide an update on current developments with International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants and International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board. Participants will also have a chance to exchange views with the speaker.
