

Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants takes regulatory action against a certified public accountant (practising)

(HONG KONG, 2 November 2020) The Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants has taken regulatory action against Mr. Lui Tin Nang, certified public accountant (practising) (F04276) for his failure or neglect to observe, maintain or otherwise apply professional standards issued by the Institute.

Lui issued an accountant's report for a solicitor's firm under the Accountant's Report Rules (Cap. 159A) ("Rules"). In conducting the reporting engagement, he failed to comply with the Rules and the Institute's Practice Note 840 (Revised) Reporting on Solicitors' Accounts under the Solicitors' Accounts Rules and the Accountant's Report Rules. Lui did not adequately inquire into the reasons for certain long outstanding client account balances and unrepresented cheques made out to clients. He also failed to resolve an inconsistency in the results of client account circularization. Lastly, he failed to document a number of procedures he carried out in support of the accountant's statement in the accountant's report.

The Institute concluded that Lui failed or neglected to observe, maintain or otherwise apply the fundamental principle of Professional Competence and Due Care in sections 110.1 A1(c) and R113.1 under Chapter A of the Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants in conducting the engagement.

Regulatory action

Based on the foregoing and in lieu of further proceedings, the Council of the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants concluded that the following should resolve the complaint:

1. Lui acknowledges the facts of the case and his non-compliance with professional standards;
2. Lui be reprimanded; and
3. Lui pays an administrative penalty of HK$25,000 and the Institute's costs of HK$15,000.

About Resolution by Agreement

In order to better serve the interests of the public and the profession, the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") ensures complaints are dealt with in an effective and transparent manner. In accordance with Council powers outlined in the Professional Accountants Ordinance, a Resolution by Agreement ("RBA") may be offered in uncontested cases considered to be moderate after taking into account the nature and gravity of the complaint, past disciplinary records of the respondent and any aggravating or mitigating circumstances. An RBA will not be offered in cases involving complaints of dishonesty, which are handled through a separate disciplinary process.

The RBA includes a mandatory public censure which entails publication of the name of the respondent, facts of the case and areas of non-compliance with professional standards. Information on the Institute's complaint handling process and guidelines for Resolutions by Agreement are available at the Institute website under the "Compliance" section at www.hkicpa.org.hk.
